

Acknowledgments

My sincere gratitude and thanks to my thesis supervisor Prof. Sandeep Kumar for his valuable guidance and inspiration. I really enjoyed working with him. He gave all of us enough freedom to choose our research problem and always motivated us towards executing them to completion. Thank you so much sir, for all your time and valuable inputs throughout the course of this work. I sincerely acknowledge Prof.V.A.Raghunathan for his support all through my work. He was kind enough to help me in interpreting all my x-ray data. I really inspired by his patience and way of explaining things in a very simple way. It was a great learning for me whenever I had an interaction with him and I have a lot to learn from him. I thank Prof.V.Lakshminarayanan who is one of my inspirations since my graduation days both as a person and as a scientist. He had given me a lot of his valuable time for discussing my research problems and played a vital role in getting my work to completion. I thank Prof.B.K.Sadashiva, Prof.N.V. Madhusudana for various discussions. I really feel lucky to have interacted with these iconic scientists in this research field.

*My sincere acknowledgments to my academic committee members, Prof.R.Pratibha, Prof. Arun Roy for their valuable inputs. I take this opportunity to thank all the other SCM faculties Prof. Pramod, Prof.Ranjini, Dr. Sayantan, Dr. Gautam, for all their help during various occasions.
